It is further informed that vide 155th meeting of the Executive Committee of AICTE held on January 12, 2023 approved the proposal of discontinuation of approval of courses under Pharmacy Program from the Approval Process and Extension of approval (EoA) with effect from 2023-24. The EC further decided that grant of GPAT Scholarship and other schemes by AICTE may also be discontinued, however, ongoing batches of students who are in receipt of scholarship under GPAT/ schemes may be disbursed as per rules till completion of the batch. Processing or disbursing of any new scholarship under GPAT/schemes may be stopped from 2023-24 onwards.

The following points may be kept in view while processing applications.

- i) The students may be advised to upload legible & required documents only.
- ii) The applicable columns in “Institute Bonafide Certificate” such as Institute/Scheme/Course approved/not approved may be tick marked to avoid marking of the application defective.
- iii) In some cases, date of Birth, name of applicant, Father’s name and income mismatched in certificate while uploading the online application. The same may be checked at institute level.
- iv) Parents do not clearly mention in the “Parent Declaration Certificate” that how many daughters they have. If they have more than one daughter, which one of them is applying for the Scholarship scheme? Proper information of parent declaration certificate should be on prescribed format.
